COMMUNION

SCRIPTURE – Acts 4 : 5 - 20

THEME – Seen and Heard

Today we look at how Jesus guides and mentors us. Is it learning more? Is it following rules? Or is it something else? We also share in communion at the end

Closing Prayer

Lord, strengthen us we pray, with your gracious gifts. Put love into our words, hope in our hearts, and faith in our actions. May the reality behind this bread and wine feed our body, our soul, and our spirit, as we follow Jesus. Keep us in your ways, and guide us by your Spirit. In Jesus' name. Amen

Chapel Services

At Wednesday's (Zoom) church meeting it was decided to continue with the modified fortnightly reflective service.

Next service 20th September. On the alternate Sundays there will be an activity session for families with young children, commencing Sunday 27th September.

There will be a Harvest Service on the 4th October where we can donate items to the Clevedon Foodbank.

Clevedon Foodbank

Donations from Wrington have been fantastic - thank you. But there is still a need particularly this month for toiletries and household cleaning products. There are 3 collection points - Buglers, Butts Batch (opposite the vet) and Roper's Lane (bottom of Wrington Hill) Please continue to pray for

Prayer awareness : Romans 1:11 Trust

Please continue to pray for our friends in Uganda regarding Covid-19 and the risk of poor harvests, too. On the home front; please pray for our administrator Rachel who is caring for Chris's ill husband, Dr. Derek Copley, while Chris takes some time out to visit her other daughter. Chris, you may remember, was our administrator for many years and married Derek just under three years ago since when she has had to become his carer.

Elsewhere: not a R.1:11 beneficiary but a personal friend of Jenny and me, pastor Ernest Batera has contacted me recently from Rwanda and, although coping with the C-19 situation, is experiencing real poverty. We have been able to help a little but a big need is prayer. Please think of Ernest, family and fellowship at this time. They pray constantly for all of us. Ian

Service Sunday 20th September

I will be away next week so there will not be a newsletter produced. Service details for next Sunday are.

SCRIPTURE: Matthew 20 verses 1 to 16

THEME: Jesus and Relativity

Next Sunday we look at how much we compare ourselves with others, and how that might effect our Christian life.

Closing call

Come, O redeemed,
Tell God how much you appreciate him,
remind yourself of all he has done.
Use your voice. Sing. Sing blackbird joy.
It matters not if the notes are wrong.
It means nothing if the words are simple.
What matters is your praising heart.
Revel in him.
Coat yourself in the colours of his grace.
May his love soak through your pores,
Jog your heart's memory,
That you may long to be near him.
Tell yourself again and again:
He loves you and has made you his own.
Hallelujah.
