SCRIPTURE – Mark 12 : 28 - 34
THEME – Faith and Relationships

How do we work out our ethics - what is right and wrong? And what does it mean to love God? We look at the importance of faith, and how that cannot be separated from relationships. To love God is to love those around you.

Prayer awareness : Tearfund Christmas Appeal

Malawi is a country of great beauty and phenomenal resilience but today it's people are facing a growing threat. Weather patterns have changed drastically and now farmers don't know when to plant or when to expect the harvest. With either too much or too little rain, the only certainty is hunger.

A gift to Tearfund this Christmas will support its work in Malawi and give hope to millions of people living in constant fear of starvation. In God's hands, your small act of kindness could have far reaching benefits to families striving for a better future. For more details of Tearfund's Christmas Appeal please see their website www.tearfund.org

Final Prayer

Lord, you made us to love you and love each other. By your Spirit, help us to be the people you want. Help us to love you authentically, not caring about reputation. And help us to do so by loving those people you put around us. May we so follow Jesus. Amen

Dear Father God,
We pray that you grant to the people of Malawi new confidence about the future and how they will survive. Please move in power, bring balance to their environment and restore their harvests. You brought eternal hope into the world which we celebrate at Christmas. We thank you for all you have done and ask that you give new hope to those struggling in Malawi.
Amen

Additional Monthly Charities Update

Last month we supported Care for the Family and this month we are giving to Shelter Box. In December our additional charity will be Helping Hands in Athens which is a refugee ministry <https://www.onecollective.org/community/helping-hands>

Monthly reflections

Duncan's monthly reflections for November are available on the chapel website.
