COMMUNION SERVICE

SCRIPTURE – Mark 12 : 28 - 34
THEME – Ego 1: Loving Me, Loving You?

Today we start a few weeks looking at our egos, and whether they can hinder our walk with Jesus. Is our culture increasingly narcissistic, and can we do anything about it?

Duncan has supplied discussion notes and questions for small groups after each week's sermons. These are available on the website

Derek is going to host a discussion zoom meeting at 6.30 on Sunday evenings; please email him for the link.

Monthly charities

In January we contributed to the work of Clevedon Aid. They were established in April 2020 to support the lives of people affected by the pandemic and will continue after the threat of Covid-19 has passed. Examples of the support provided by their volunteers are: Finding a professional carer, setting up online-shopping, gardening, help accessing Social Services, technology at home (advice on gadgets that can help/ how to use / video calls etc), community meals.

Prayer awareness : MAF
Planes of peace in South Sudan

One year on since the latest peace deal was signed, South Sudan has seen the worst violence on record since the start of the civil war in 2013. In the midst of conflict, MAF continues to bring peacemakers together. Michael Comerford from the Peacebuilding Opportunities Fund (Credit: Jenny Davies). According to the UN, recent violence in South Sudan has exceeded that of 2013 and 2019. 600 people out of the 2,000 killed were in Jonglei State alone — an area situated in eastern South Sudan. Earlier this year, MAF flew Michael Comerford and his team from the Peacebuilding Opportunities Fund to the worst affected towns of Pibor, Pieri and Lankien to facilitate dialogue between leaders. The Pibor-bound flight had an armed guard on board. For generations, raiding has been used to settle rivalries and acquire the cattle wealth needed for marriage and prestige. Since guns have replaced spears, death rates have soared, deepening the divide between tribes. MAF continues to fly peacemakers like Michael to the most violent areas to mediate between warring tribes. Please pray these flights of peace can continue and for the protection to all those taking part in the negotiation.

Elders Elections

Voting papers have been sent out to Church Members, please return them to Jackie by 1 pm on 16th March. If you need any further information about the process please contact Marshall, Duncan or one of the Elders.

Monthly jottings

Not only are Duncan's March jottings on the website but..... on the 'Recordings' tab you will find the Lent Course for 2021 as well. Going forward the recordings will be posted after the session but the notes to pre-read in preparation are already there.
