Open the Book is in Africa!

If you've been a Sunday school teacher or pupil, you'll know that dramatizing Bible stories is a great way to get children engaging with God's word. In exactly that way, Open the Book has been taking the Bible beyond churches and into primary schools in this country for more than 20 years.

Uganda is the latest country to jump on board with Open the Book. Pastor Simon is a church leader in Uganda who took hold of this opportunity the moment he heard about it from a Bible Society supporter in England.

'Their enthusiasm was amazing,' said Angela Lopez Branco, who heads Open the Book International. 'You could feel God at work! Pastor Simon heard about Open the Book, and less than 24 hours later he had a team improvising the David and Goliath story in a training session!'

The Pastor and his Ugandan team aren't the first to bring Open the Book to Africa's primary schoolchildren. They're following in the footsteps of passionate volunteers in Ghana and Kenya. To get a sense of the impact these teams will have on children, you can watch the Kenyan team preparing an entertaining performance of the Samson story to take into schools.

Greetings and Request from Anna Stockham

It's a request for people to consider a voluntary role with the Christian organisation MentorMe (based in Bristol) who need more mentors for their work supporting ex-offenders on release. We have been doing this for last year or so and it's a great thing to be part of. xx

Please could you share this video <https://vimeo.com/574439378> to your church's own website and add to your Newsletter, so that we can get volunteers signed up!

All info about the training can be found here <https://photos.app.goo.gl/A26qjeCqnoGBe6MY7> and for more information about what MentorMe do please watch this video <https://vimeo.com/364740528/c3e91bcbec>
